Hey,

I have got some feedback for Leah to be passed on tomorrow after you have spoken with Diana/any others on what they think. Amber can you copy this into the email to Leah please:

- Lewis wasn't sure on what the word commission meant but said the rest was fine. It made sense.

- Veronica didn't understand the word autonomous at first. She said the description helped and made sense. Veronica said it was a 'mouthful' to say that word and that she didn't understand the word collaboration. Veronica knew the word commission. Veronica thinks the rest was good.

- Tom didn't understand the word collaboration and suggested to use, '...working with artists' instead.

Thanks,

Kat
